

POLICE BENEFIT . . . The Mexicali Brass, fastest rising recording and performing group in show business, will be featured at the forthcoming Torrance Police Officers Benefit Show and Dance to be held Saturday, Nov. 18, at 8:30 p.m. in the Long Beach Arena. The Mexicali Brass has appeared at every major night club and hotel in the country with such stars as Jack Benny, Tennessee Ernie Ford, and many more. They have also appeared in many television shows. A family ticket for the show costs $4. Proceeds will support the Torrance Police Officers Youth Programs and Benevolent Fund.

Chamber Members Will Hear Yorty

Mayor Samuel Yorty of Los Angeles will address members of the Torrance Chamber of Commerce at a general membership luncheon Friday, Nov. 17.

Brian J. K. Bell, chairman of the Chamber's Membership Relations Committee, said the luncheon will be held at the Indian Village Restaurant at noon.

Another highlight of the meeting, Bell said, will be the presentation of the Citizen-of-the-Month award to Los Angeles Police Officer Peter J. Gravett of San Pedro.

Gravett, who recently was awarded the Los Angeles Police Department's Medal of Valor, was chosen Citizen-of-the-Month award for his action last summer in saving the life of a boy who was the victim of a mob attack at the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum.

Harry B. Gorman, project manager of Del Amo Properties, Inc., and treasurer of the Chamber of Commerce, will present the award. The Citizen-of-the-Month program is sponsored by Great Lakes Properties, Inc.

Area Artist Appointed To Fine Arts Faculty

Connor Everts, noted artist and educator, has been appointed visiting professor of art at the University of Southern California, it was announced today by Lee R. Chesney Jr., associate dean, USC School of Architecture and Fine Arts.

Everts, who lives at 117 Via Colusa, has shown his works in one-man and major exhibitions at the Michael Walls Gallery, San Francisco; Tokyo Biennial Painting Exhibition; and in leading galleries in New York, San Francisco, Santiago de Chile, London, and throughout Los Angeles and vicinity.

He has held teaching posts at Pasadena Art Museum, California State College at Los Angeles, San Francisco

Art Institute, Chouinard Art Institute, Valley State College, Long Beach City College, Palos Verdes College, and Instituto Popular, Santiago de Chile.

He earned an associate of arts degree at El Camino College, attended the University of Washington and was graduated from Mexico City College. He also studied at Courtauld Institute, University of London.

A frequent lecturer, he also has served as guest artist at many seminars and conferences.
